Delete from "Who's Who" the names of all those distinguished personages who own, or use, or are served by, Ford passenger or goods vehicles, and "Who's Who's" bulk would be reduced to the consistency of a very slim tract!

NOTE

OWING to the greatly increased difficulties of production because of the War, it has been impossible this year to guarantee inclusion of any items taking place after July 31st, 1918.

The word of warning in previous editions as to addresses has borne fruit, and many more biographies show an address or a club than formerly, but it is well for the others to bear in mind that a proof for correction cannot be sent unless there is an address. As any sort of correction, even well-meant attempts to cut down biographies, involves expense, it is particularly requested that no alterations should be made at all unless absolutely necessary.

Any person who has had the C.B.E. or D.S.O. conferred on him and has not yet received a form from Who's Who, is invited to write for a form on which to fill in particulars as to birth, parentage, career, etc., for the next edition.

—to the Horse what the Red Cross is to the Man.

If it were in your power to help a horse that had been injured in the street you would do what you could for it.

An injured WAR HORSE is even more worthy of your sympathy and assistance.

The ONLY WAY in which you can help a BRITISH WAR HORSE is by contributing to the

R.S.P.C.A. FUND FOR SICK AND WOUNDED HORSES

105 JERMYN STREET, S.W.1.

Because that is the ONLY FUND authorised by the ARMY COUNCIL to assist the ARMY VETERINARY CORPS at the FRONT.

That fact is a guarantee that the money of the charitable is spent wisely.

The Fund has provided Hospital accommodation for 13,000 HORSES, and has sent out twenty-eight motor ambulances, each to take two horses, one hundred and eighty horse ambulances, and vast quantities of Veterinary Requisites.

MORE HELP IS NEEDED

To enable the Fund to carry on its work. A "Bed" for a wounded horse costs £10. How many beds will you give?

Donations should be sent to the Hon. Secretary, R.S.P.C.A. Fund, 105 Jermyn Street, London, S.W.1.
